

Grandmother Amie scares chimpanzees away from the farm with a drum. Design another forest-friendly way to stop animals from eating the cocoa!	In the morning, Beshey gets washed, dressed, brushes his teeth and has his breakfast. What do you do in the morning? Draw a picture and write a sentence about your morning routine.	Collect pebbles or rocks from outside. Paint them with things you might find in the rainforest. Remember to include a cocoa pod!
In the film we learnt that trees are important. They clean the air we breathe and provide homes for animals. Go for a walk with a grown up and see how many types of tree you can spot. You could take a paper and crayon to do some bark rubbings!		Draw and label the crops that grow on Beshey's family farm. Then, draw and label five fruits or vegetables that grow in your country. Why do different crops grow in different places?
Cocoa beans grow in hot countries, far away from the United Kingdom. Have a look in your food cupboards with an adult. Can you find any other foods that were grown in countries far away?	Make a zig zag book about cocoa growing and harvesting. Draw and label one stage per page. 	Create a collage, painting, drawing or model of a rainforest. Remember to include the trees, animals and people that live there! Hint: You could use a shoebox or cardboard box to make your rainforest.