

Dangers in the Home

Take a look around your home, think about the risks and dangers we have been learning about in school and speak to the adults you live with. Can you find six potential dangers to draw or write about in the six boxes below?

The form consists of six irregularly shaped boxes arranged in a grid-like pattern. The top row has two boxes of similar size. The middle row is a single, wide box. The bottom row has three boxes of varying sizes. All boxes are empty and intended for student input.
